her mother, younger brother, and older brother, who is studying medicine.

Nita states two reasons for participating in the AFS student exchange program: "It was my childhood dream to see the Vega, nicknamed Pat.

Sixteen-year-old Nita, who lives with the Edward Rileys, comes from Alangalong, the Philippines. The Rileys' daughter, Kathy, is a RRHS sophomore.

Nita attended Alangalang High School where last year she took physics, economics, literature, Oriental history, Philipino (the national language), English, health, and physical education.

Nita participated in many extracurricular activities. She was vice-president of both her senior class and student government, president of the glee club, treasurer of the dramatics club, and member of the 4-H club.

Nita's family includes her father, a retired army major, student body: "To the Members of the Rocky River High School Student Body:

I know that you have been saddened by the decision of Dr. Thoburn Davis to retire as superintendent of the Rocky River School District, and that you probably have some curiosity about his successor. I have admired Dr. Davis for many years and am honored to have been selected to serve in his place as superintendent.

Alan Raves About Brazil, Comments on Economy

AFS'er Alan Greenleaf returns from his six month stay in Brazil with many souvenirs and memories of our neighbor to the South.

"Except for the sight of an occasional horse and buggy, life in the large city of Sao Paulo is not unlike that in Cleveland," commented Alan. "The four million Paulistas live and work amidst towering skyscrapers and teeming traffic, trademarks of modernization."

Actually, Alan lived in the city of Brooklin, a suburb of Sao Paulo. His AFS family, the Marques Da Cruz included his "father, mother, grandmother, two brothers, and two sisters." The family spent a good deal of time together in the evenings and on Sundays, but for the most part they went their separate ways.

Alan attended the scientific section of a private high school.

Be assured that I will do everything I can to make it possible for you to continue to have fine educational opportunities.

I hope you have had a pleasant summer and that you look forward to a return to classes with interest and enthusiasm.

I know you are proud of and loyal to Rocky River High School. This pleases me because no organization can be outstanding without the cooperation of every member of it. We have two sons, one a senior and the other a freshman, who are looking forward to membership in your student body as soon as we have found housing.

I look forward with great interest to meeting you and getting to know you better. We will be cheering with you every activity in which the Pirates compete with other schools.

May I wish for you a very happy and successful school year.

Yours sincerely,

Lewis L. Burkhart

The typical subjects offered were descriptive geometry, physics, chemistry, logic, and related courses. The other section of the school program provided training for those interested in law, languages, and other non-scientific curriculum.

An interesting aspect of their school system is the fact that the students remain in their classrooms while their teachers come to them. The grading scale ranges from one to ten, five being a passing mark. Unlike the American high schools, they have no seasonal sports. Soccer is played the year round.

Having a "father" who was once a Portuguese grammar teacher enabled Alan to overcome the language barrier. His background in Spanish was also a great help.

During the July holidays, Alan was able to see a good deal of the country. With his family he toured Bilo Horizonte, one of the world's most

Advantages of Early Study Evident at Year's End

As you enter these halls again, or possibly for the first time, this fall, you probably have mixed feelings toward the coming school year.

You like being around with all your friends again and you like always having something to do. You come to the games, plan the dances and join some clubs. But you hardly care for the nightly study routine.

Well, nobody really likes it. But in school there is an opportunity, and a responsibility to take that opportunity.

It is especially hard now, after the relaxed atmosphere of summer vacation, to really bear down and study. You have probably heard once too often that you owe it to yourself and that you just hurt yourself if you don't take school seriously. That is all true enough, but this old song and dance routine hardly inspires any great change in students. 'How ya doin' this year?' 'Oh, I'm doin' okay,' is often heard.

There are some facts well worth considering, though:

1. Most teachers sort of ease into the work at the beginning of the year so that a student may orient himself with the new subject matter. This can be taken advantage of in that because there is less presented, with careful study on this small amount of material a surprisingly good grade may be had for the amount of work needed.
2. After the year is half over students often find themselves stuck with an undesirable below par average which cannot be changed.
3. The most important advantage of starting in now with a good study program is in the fact that habits formed now will carry on through the year. Bad habits now, however, will probably also continue.

It is up to you. You have a fresh start -- make the most of it.

How Can You Contribute to This?

This year, as every year, the day the doors of RRHS are opened to the incoming students, the building and grounds are looking their best. The main halls are freshly waxed and waiting for the rush hours, that time between 8 a.m. and 3:40 p.m. when traffic and noise pulse through those arteries.

Every Riverite knows there is a place for everything, and everything in its place. Before you practice that foul shot with that paper wad, doodle on the wall, or quickly dispose of your chewing gum under the desk, remember that this building's appearance reflects on you.

Help keep your school clean.

Very few students take notice that the walls have been cleared of pencil marks and the desks of chewing gum. The fact that there is no paper on the floor never enters their minds.

For those few hours before River's hallowed halls were scenes of traffic jams and the classrooms of confusion, neatness reigned supreme.

Ron Hanson Reports on Camp Miniwanca

This summer for two weeks with a grant from the Lakewood Rotary Club I attended a session at Camp Miniwanca. I know many from the Class of '63 shied away from this program because they didn't know what they would be getting into. The reason it was all so sort of hazy is the fact that the program really defies description. I am supposed to describe it though so I will go through a normal day.

In the morning there are four classes which all first year men took. Four-fold Living (mental, social, physical, religion), The Life and Teachings of Jesus, Philosophy, and Leadership Training. They are just what their names imply.

My favorite class was Philosophy conducted by Dr. Osbert W. Warmingham (called Kodaya), former head of the Philosophy Department at Boston University and with the camp since 1915. He is a very interesting man; a poet, musician, scholar and artist. He always had people surrounding him and listening to him talk. All of the staff is well qualified and teaches without pay.

In the afternoon I took fencing and sailing from the elective courses. This was followed by tribal games and swimming in Lake Michigan or Stony Lake. There was always entertainment after dinner.

The guys there were really tremendous, not just from every state in the union, but from other lands as well.

The program was great and it really kept me busy. The physical plant of the camp on the dunes of the shore of Lake Michigan is really impressive, too.

When the opportunity comes to apply this spring, Juniors, do not miss it. The experience of four-fold living upon which the American Youth Foundation set up the camp is well worth your while.

Yearbooks Mirror Life at RRHS; '23 Pennant Preceeds Riverlet

When Rocky River students look at their 1962 Riverlet, they see a hardbound book, thick with glossy pictures depicting the year's scholastic, athletic, and social life. This is a far cry from River's 1923 yearbook the Pennant.

In 1923, the seventh through twelfth grades were housed in one building. Because of the small classes, pictures were few and far between.

Gaps were filled by a literary and a joke editor. At least one complete section of the yearbook was dedicated to the writing talent of the school. Light poetry and jokes were scattered throughout the picture pages.

Any editor in charge of the senior "write-ups" had to have a thorough knowledge of literature. Each senior had an adage written next to his picture which gave an insight to

Students, Faculty Adjust to Schedule

The nine period day became necessary when the rapid increase in student enrollment surpassed classroom space.

By beginning school 5 minutes earlier than last year and shortening each period four minutes, the administration formed a nine period day. The addition of the ninth period means that classroom enrollment can be kept lower. The extra period enables students to schedule another non-academic subject or study hall. Boys in athletics have a ninth period study hall which can be used as a sports practice.

"While operating under the new 9-period schedule the faculty will need the cooperation of the student body to make this a successful school year," stated Mr. Herbert Agnor.

"The continuation of an 8-period day would make it necessary to increase classroom enrollment. This increase would result in less individual help from teachers.

"The 9-period day is a temporary condition that will last until the completion of the new addition to the high school.

River's 1923 yearbook shows that both boys' and girls' sports were highly popular. Even the girls had varsity teams and were well known for their skill in basketball, hockey, and track.

In boys' athletics A, B, and C teams were parallel to our freshman, JV, and varsity teams. 1923 was the first year Rocky River had a golf team.

Some of the 1923 activities have been carried over to 1962. Friendship, Orchestra, and Glee Club are as popular now as they were then.

Library Adds Interesting Books

As well as some 3,000 new textbooks, the RRHS library has many new books arriving or on order. These range anywhere from "Gray's Anatomy" to the "Complete Book of Karting."

Along with a wide variety of new reference books or others helpful for assignments, there are many enjoyable books for outside reading.

Did you know that the highest speed that particles from a sneeze have been measured is 103.6 m. p. h. ? This is just one of many amazing records found in "World Records" by Norris and Ross McWhirter. This book gives the richest, hottest, coldest, oldest, loud-

Hard-Working Bandsmen Drill With Enthusiasm

One hundred members of the 1962 Rocky River High School Marching Band have commenced the football season with a week of rigorous pre-school rehearsing that began Mon., Aug. 27.

Each morning and evening the entire band gathered at the high school to practice pre-game and half-time performances. During afternoons, squad leaders taught marching fundamentals to freshmen, uniforms were issued, instrumental sections drilled special techniques, and pictures were taken. Style innovations of this year include a long, low stride and cross-over arm swing.

"The Rocky River High School band is a hard-working, heads-up, feet-up, armswinging band," stated Mr. Harlan Thomas, band director. "The upperclassmen generate the drive and enthusiasm which make this band outstanding. The freshmen are responding to this drive and enthusiasm with hard practice and excellent progress."

The eight senior squad leaders are Rhonda Cooper, Barb Hunt, Wendy Marley, Sue Weigel, Paul Berns, John Maier, Jim Manning, and Denny Rosenow (band captain); the sixteen junior squad leaders are Laurel Baus, Pat Hoskin, Judy Husband, Jackie Krueger, Alene Lamprecht, Connie Potts, Sherry Watts, Sue Wilkinson, Dan Barco, Tom Brooks, Dave Crossley, Bob Henderson, Chris Kohler, Keith Lerch, Ralph Reid, and Gary Terbeek.

To celebrate the week of rehearsing, a "South Pacific" band party was held Thurs., Aug. 30, at the home of Judy Husband.

Sister Committee, New Riverites Meet At Council's Picnic

Wednesday, Aug. 29, the big sister committee of Girls' Council held a get acquainted picnic for new Riverite girls at Clague Park from 12:00 to 2:00 p. m. The girls were sent invitations for the picnic the preceding week.

The afternoon began with a lunch consisting of pop, sandwiches, relishes, and dessert. During a "sing along with big sisters", the girls were taught the Alma Mater, fight song, and football cheers. The picnic ended with a period in which the new RRHS'ers asked questions about the high school.

Oberlin Challenges River In First Conference Game

River's football team will beat Oberlin Friday, and there will start the fight for the 1962 SWC championship.

Cross Country Begins Practice

Led by Tom Kelley, the only returning letterman, the RRHS cross country team, coached by Mr. Ernest Kuehls, has begun to work out in preparation for its first meet Tues., Sept. 18, with West Tech. Other members of the 26-man squad also being counted on are Pat Winegard, Lee Perry, Tom Lindow, Dick Kapferer, Marc Davis, and Tom George.

This year, for the first time, cross country is an official Southwestern Conference sport. At the end of the season a league meet will be held.

The team will participate in two other large and important meets--the Brush Relays Sat., Oct. 20, and the West Side District Meet at Ridgewood Golf Club Sat., Oct. 27.

Cheerers End Preparations

This year, once again, Rocky River's varsity and JV football teams are being backed up by two fine cheering squads. The cheerleaders have been practicing all summer and are ready with new cheers and lots of pep.

Varsity cheerleaders are Kathy Kleist, Cheryl Grube, Helen Hodgson, Jacque Johnston, Linda Dragella, and Kathy White.

Sue Stevens, Missy Mayer, Loreen Brothers, Jan Stafford, and Beth Baumgardner compose the JV squad.

Cheryl Grube, captain of the cheerleaders during football, reminds us that, "The most important thing for a successful season is good school spirit."

Let's give support to the cheerleaders so they can lead Rocky River's football teams on to new and greater victories.

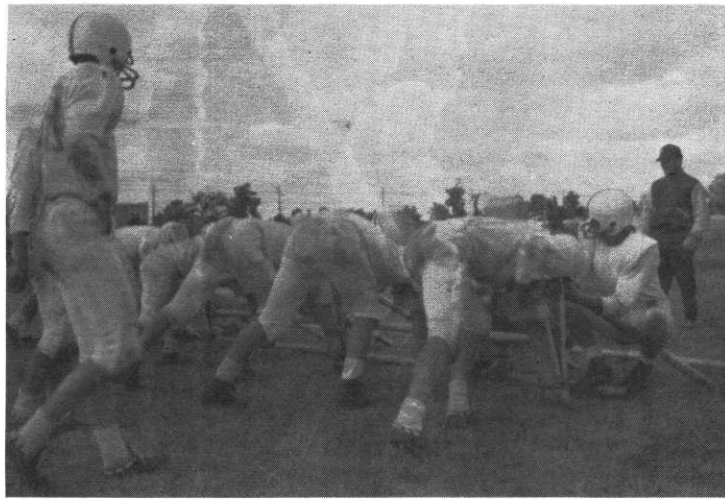

The gridgers have scrimmaged twice, gaining much experience. In the first, against West High, River suffered injuries: John Dawson, a knee injury; Guy Cartwright, a leg injury; and John Davies, an arm and wrist injury. Dawson, Cartwright, and Vince Gandolfi, who was injured earlier, were back in action for the second scrimmage Fri., Aug. 31. John Davies will be out for most of the season.

Head coach Donald Frail started the workouts Fri., Aug. 17. Mr. David Bichsel will again coach the JV's. Mr. David Taylor and Mr. Edward Stoll will share the coaching assignments of the freshman squad.

Returning lettermen from the championship team of 1961 are: Co-Captain Eric Damon, Co-Captain Fred Motts, Pat Gillespie, Greg Ware, Mike Callahan, Guy Cartwright, and John Dawson.

Coach Frail said the biggest problems were inexperience and injuries so far this year.

Varsity Managers are Dave Scott and Pete Pfizenmayer.

well-planned cities; the historic city of Congonhas; Ouro Preto, the city of many churches; and the ex-capital of Rio de Janeiro. He was given the opportunity of seeing an additional portion of the continent during his plane trip to Brazil, stopping briefly in Panama, Peru, and Trinidad.

Alan visited Brazil at an opportune time in which he was able to witness the national carnival of Brazil. Much like the Mardi Gras, the carnival lasts four glorious and colorful days.

Through incidents like this and the countless others which Alan saw and was a part of, he gained a greater knowledge of these people. That he found this an interesting and rewarding experience is evidenced by his desire to return for another visit.

The high school also welcomed 44 students who have lived in the school district but have attended parochial schools. They include William Arthur, John Callahan, Mike Dorman, Terry Dunlap, Russell Elliot, William Faup, Barbara Frank, Angela Freeman, Penny Gaffney, Hugh Gallagher, Greg Gettens, Katharine Gressingh, Tom Hauer, Larry Heil, Dick Holliday, Bob Kahler, Virginia Kamuf, Bob Kapferer, Rae Kelly, John Kelting, and John Kilroy.

Pat's family includes his father, an oral surgeon, his mother, and two older brothers, a dentist and an architect.

Pat enjoys athletics - soccer, rugby, skiing, fishing, and swimming - music, gardening, and photography; he brought many color slides of Chile with him.

To enter some phase of engineering is Pat's ambition.

Pat states three reasons for participating in the AFS student exchange program: "I want to learn a new way of living, meet new people, and make known my people and customs to Americans."

An American Field Service Committee, advised by Mr. Thomas Duke, was formed this year to meet the extra duties of having two exchange students. Senior members are Debbie Murray, Diane Peters, Peg Wiesenberger, Guy Cartwright, Larry Gilbert, and Alan Greenleaf; junior members are Lynn Anderson, Margie Seelbach (chairman), Tom Brooks, and Keith Lerch; sophomore members are Kathy Riley and Pete Pfizenmayer.

Welcoming picnics sponsored by committee members were given Aug. 28 and Sept. 4 for Nita and Pat respectively.

Football Clinic Impresses Fans

Interested students and parents were presented an informative program about this year's varsity and JV football teams Friday night, Aug. 31, at the high school.

New head football coach Don Frail opened the program by introducing the varsity team. He then introduced his coaching staff, concluding with Mr. Bichsel who introduced the JV squad.

After this coach Frail used Fred Motts as a model while explaining the various parts of the protective equipment worn by the boys.

He then demonstrated with the varsity team two offensive plays to be used in the Berea scrimmage later that night.

Mr. Richard Hoskin ended the program with an explanation of several defensive plays also to be used that night.

In the scrimmages that followed at the junior high, the JV's won with a TD by Tom Gdovin and the varsity tied with Berea, Scott Nehoda scoring River's only TD.
