KATHY CROMMELIN and LUFF JOHNSON scan an old Riverlet for new inspirations for next year's Riverlet.

Crommelin and Johnson To Be 1965 Riverlet Heads

Kathy Crommelin and Luff Johnson have been named editor and business manager, respectively, for next year's Riverlet. The final judging was done by Mrs. Connie Burgess, adviser, Lynn Anderson, present editor, and Chris Kohler, present business manager.

Kathy is active in Current Forum, Model U.N., Girls

Leaders, and Neophytes. She is a hostess and is a member of the Quiz Bee team.

Student Council, Boys Council, and Boys Leaders are all part of Luff's activities. He is also a member of the Velvetones and serves on the HI-TIDE staff.

"Luff and I are looking forward to planning next year's Riverlet. We will do our best," stated Kathy.

Cross Replaces River's Mayor On Student Government Day

The annual Student Government Day was held yesterday. Twenty-eight student officials filled the offices of their counterparts at Rocky River City Hall.

Heading Rocky River as mayor-for-a-day was Bob Cross. Public safety-service director was Skip Chandler.

Unprecedented was the election of Connie Potts as municipal court judge and Pat Anderson as fire chief. In previous years these offices had been held by boys.

Seven City Council members were elected and in turn elected as president of City Council, Bill Walker.

The day began early for the elected students with a brief meeting of each student with his adult counterpart. A luncheon with all participating officials and students included a discussion of the problems of city government.

Afternoon sessions were centered upon the work of each specific job. The day ended with an evening meeting of the city council.

The method of electing officials was changed from previous years. To be placed on the primary ballot, a student submitted a petition with at least ten valid signatures of students taking American Government the same semester.

This led to two primary ballots where each student voted for officials from his particular semester. The final ballot consisted of the winner of each primary contest. The officials were then chosen from the final tally of all government students.

All-School Band Concert Shows Progression in Music Department

Bands in grades five through 12 from all of Rocky River's public schools will present the annual all-school band concert in the high school auditorium on May 8. Participating in the concert, in order of their appearances will be the combined fifth grade bands and the combined sixth grade bands, under the direction of Miss Roberta Calderwood.

Mr. Richard Hershey will lead the seventh and eighth grade bands from the junior high school and also the ninth grade band from the high school. The high school band will play under the direction of Mr. Harlan Thomas.

Selections to be played by the high school band are Persichetti's Pageant, a cornet solo entitled Stars in a Velvety Sky featuring Judy Husband, Tym-polero featuring Connie Potts in a tympani solo, and a medley of Italian songs to be dedicated to Tony Corti, our AFS student from Italy.

Closing the program will be the traditional Sousa march, The Stars and Stripes Forever featuring piccolos played by Dan Hawley and Gayle Bartnett and the entire brass section of the band.

The music to be played by the elementary and junior high bands has not been announced.

Appearing in the concert will be approximately 350 bandsmen from all age groups in Rocky River. Tickets may be purchased from any of these participants or at the door for 50 cents for students and 75 cents for adults.

AFS Meeting To Introduce Post-Graduate Program

Thursday, May 7, is the day River students can learn about the qualifications for being an AFS American Abroad.

At 3:35 that afternoon all sophomores and juniors who are interested in knowing more about the program can hear descriptions of the program from Margie Seelbach, Helen Bahnsen, Tony Corti, Mr. Thomas Duke and Mrs. John Sanders, committee chairman for Americans Abroad. The meeting will be in the auditorium.

Juniors (next year's seniors) are eligible for the first time. They can apply for a year abroad following their graduation from high school.

Sophomores (next year's juniors) are eligible to apply for summer and school-year programs as in the past. The qualifications for all potential AFSers are the same as in previous years. The basic ones are

- 1) Junior or senior class
- 2) 16 years old at the time of departure
- 3) Two years of a foreign

- language at departure
- 4) United States citizen
- 5) Good student
- 6) Excellent health

Anyone who knows or who thinks he might be interested in AFS will have his questions answered at the meeting. No student will be under any obligation if he attends. Students who cannot be at the meeting can talk with Mr. Duke privately for further information.

Registration to Close May 29 For All Summertime Scholars

Students completing grades 7-12 may participate in a summer school program which will be held at RRHS for seven weeks, daily, 8-12, June 15 through July 31.

Registrations, except those for make-up work, should be completed by May 29.

Tuition is due at the time of registration. No refunds will be made after June 22. A non-resident fee of $5 is added to the stated fees for all courses except driving. Application forms are available in Room 107, Guidance Office.

Although the cost differs according to the subjects taken, it averages about $20 for a two-hour course and $35 for a four-hour course.

New courses being offered this year are algebra II, chemistry-introduction, geometry, industrial arts-wood II, reading and typing (2nd semester).

Students Will Celebrate Bard's Birthday

As part of RRHS's celebration of Shakespeare's 400th birthday, a group of speech students will present The Taming of the Shrew.

In this country and in England special programs including the production of many of his plays are honoring the Bard of Stratford. The Speech and English Departments felt that further appreciation for him could be developed by giving the students an opportunity to see another of his plays.

Baptista Minola, a rich gentleman of Padua and father of Katherine and Bianca, will be played by Tom Lindow. The part of Katherine, who is widely known as the woman with a bad temper and scolding tongue, is played by Bonnie McLandsborough.

The lovely Bianca is played by Diane Doerge. Petruchio, a gentleman of Verona, who finally tames Kate, is played by Jeff Gould. The suitors for the hand of Bianca are Tom Yeaser, Gary Oatey, and Dwight Stoffel.

Others in the cast are Sue Blough, Gary Carlisle, Reg Corbett, Bill Diamond, John Gertz, John Graves, Bob Hinske, Bryon Hull, Chuck Inglefield, Tom Lawson.

A group of sixth period English students will view the play Thurs., May 1.

Miss Edith A. White will direct the play. Mr. Charles Shelton is head of the English Department.

Civil Rights Calls for Mature Student Action

Civil Rights is undeniably the foremost social movement of the present day. Whereas in the past, Americans have taken strong measures to eradicate corruption in government or to improve working conditions for the laborer, today men have united in an effort to stamp out discrimination between races.

History is being made as a result of this national struggle, and violent history has recently been made in Cleveland.

What, then, in the face of this crisis is our responsibility? What should the Rocky River High School student do?

Two different attitudes are often assumed in answer to this question. The first belongs to the Diffident Disregarder. This student has no knowledge of the situation, no opinions and no desire to acquire either. He valiantly hopes that if he ignores the problem it will go away.

The other attitude belongs to the Blind Button-wearer. To this group, the struggle for Equality is the current fad. They participate in marches, picket lines and other demonstrations with glee, making a social gathering out of a social crisis.

But these are not the answers for the teen-ager with a social conscience. Each thinking individual must take a firm stand, pro or con, on this question and then act on his decision. To this person the following steps might be helpful:

1. READ. Read both sides of the subject and read with an open mind, noting whether the author is biased himself and why. Above all, don't make a judgment until you have a reliable store of information to draw upon.
2. DECIDE. Weigh carefully what you have read and apply your decision to your family, to your school and most of all, to yourself. If your aim is accomplished in the Civil Rights struggle, how will it affect your life?
3. ACT. Youth groups upholding the Negro side of the Civil Rights question have sprung up-almost overnight and are eager for new members. Many supporters can also be found with a dissenting opinion.

It is becoming more and more difficult to ignore this vital movement in which the action of an adolescent can be quite influential. We should act with the maturity this crisis calls for.

Helen Bahnsen Tells of Australia

Australia's national day--called, logically enough, Australia Day--falls on January 26, in the middle of the summer school vacation. This day marks the anniversary of the founding of the Australian colony in 1788 by about 900 Englishmen who landed in Sydney Harbour and planted the British flag there. Since these men were mainly convicts, and since none of them could be said to be Australians, Australia Day is usually thought to be rather uninspiring. Besides, it comes in the middle of the vacation, and is therefore not marked by a day off from school, which makes it even less inspiring. Consequently the real Australian patriotic day is Anzac Day--April 25.

The word Anzac is made up of the initials of the "Australian and New Zealand Army Corps", the troops that fought in the First World War. Since Australia as a nation was only 14 years old when this war began, it was our first big undertaking on the world scene, and the people at home were very proud of the tiny Army, Navy and Air Force which were sent to the aid of the Allies. For their size, the Australian forces did very well, and the first big campaign in which they were involved was the battle at Gallipoli, an attempt to force a way through Turkey and bring aid to Russia. Thousands of British, New Zealand and Australian troops scaled the cliffs along the Gallipoli shore, and dug in at the top, opposite the Turkish trenches.

Anzac Day is now a day very similar to 4th of July in America--a day of remembering the fighting it has taken at home and abroad, to keep Australia free. In every capital city, there is an Anzac Day March--every veteran of the two World wars, the Korean war, and even the African Boer war, marches in his uniform (if it still fits). Children whose fathers were killed in the war, wear their fathers medals, and march too. Every year there are veterans from other countries, notably England and America, who march under their own flag. After the marches, there are special commemorative programs on T. V. all day, and all the old W. W. I films are shown again year after year, with the Australians marching over the sand dunes in the nick of time, singing Waltzing Matilda at the tops of their voices.

It is hard to explain why Anzac Day means all that it does to an Aussie--but if you think of July 4 and George Washington's birthday and Pearl Harbour all rolled into one, and talking with an Australian accent, you have a pretty good idea of April 25 "down under"

Russian Delegation Greet Khrushchev as Rocky River Is Represented at Model UN

RRHS Model U. N. members ably represented Russia, Ceylon, Kuwait and the Central African Republic at the General Assembly April 11 at Lakewood Civic Auditorium.

Pat Hodge, a member of the Russian delegation, addressed the General Assembly with a three-minute speech on the Panama Canal situation. "As anyone can plainly see," declared Pat, "the American objective is to create another Teddy Roosevelt American lake in the Caribbean. It is time the American imperialists be reprimanded for their clearly colonial intentions."

The delegates from the U. S. S. R. also sang "Happy Birthday" to Nikita Khrushchev.

Though the organization was understandably dominated by Western bloc countries, "the U. S. S. R. did as well as could be expected," said Mr. Taylor. "Of all the Communist countries, Russia presented itself in the best light."

The delegation from Kuwait was the only River group to appear in original dress. This group, composed of Steve Lauer, John English, Paul Kinnison, Bill Turner, Gayle Barnett, Carmen Wolff and Judy Neiswander, was also instrumental in organizing the Arab bloc to face East and pray. Unfortunately, a motion to this effect was denied by the Secretary-General and the Moslems in the world body were forced to wait until recess.

The sophomores, such as Cindy Garmon and Carolyn Goshen, did a fine job defending the views of the Central African Republic. "The sophomores showed great interest this year," said Mr. Taylor, "and should be active participants in the future. We need more sophomores in the organization."

Mr. Taylor expressed dismay at the size of River's popular Model U. N. Chapter of 32 active members. "Next year it will be a smaller organization," he said, "made up of students who are not in so many other clubs. With more seriously interested students we should be an even more effective group in the future."

omores showed great interest this year," said Mr. Taylor, "and should be active participants in the future. We need more sophomores in the organization."

Student Teachers Put Theory Into Practice

Have you noticed any strange teachers wandering around the halls of RRHS lately? For the past few weeks, six college seniors have attended our school to practice the teaching skills they have been learning in college.

These new student teachers are Mr. Robert Folatko, Miss Helen Thiry, Mr. Don Elardo, Mr. Alan Swanson, Mr. James Wonnacott, and Mr. Terry Stuart.

Mr. Folatko is in his last year at Kent State University Majoring in health and physical education, he is studying under Mr. Donald Kelly. Mr. Folatko is from Rocky River.

French is Miss Thiry's speciality and she can be found with Mrs. Beverly Hunt. After graduating from Kent State, she hopes to finish her education in France.

Although Miss Thiry's home is in Lakewood, she was born in Budapest, Hungary, lived in Bavaria, and came to the United States in 1950.

Mr. Elardo, the student teacher under Mr. David Bichsel, is a social studies major at Baldwin-Wallace College.

This former graduate of Rhodes High School is interested in track. He hopes to teach in a secondary school or attend graduate school for further study in history.

Another Baldwin-Wallaceite is Mr. Swanson who is majoring in business administration and social studies. He is teaching under Mr. Neil Phinney.

A music major, Mr. Wonnacott, is now studying at the Baldwin-Wallace College Conservatory of Music. He is studying under the direction of Mr. Harlan Thomas.

Mr. Wonnacott's activities include leading and writing arrangements for his own dance band that plays at various high school dances.

Mr. Stuart who is studying under Miss Edith White, is majoring in speech at Baldwin-Wallace. Mr. Stuart, a Lakewoodite, is the adviser and administrative assistant for WBWC Radio.

Delegates Attend Breakfast; Bob Feller Speaks on Nutrition

"Meet the Eatels." This was the theme of a breakfast, April 11, sponsored by the National Dairy Council, on better nutrition for young people. Four RRHS students, Lou Caravella, Luff Johnson, Kathy Riley, and Jan Stafford were among 700 students from Greater Cleveland selected to attend the meeting.

The delegates were first greeted by Jim Runyon, disc jockey from KYW, who in turn introduced the principal speaker, Bob Feller, who spoke from his experience in the baseball world. Mr. Feller stressed the long range importance of good nutritional habits, and how these habits will assure one of never being at a disadvantage because of physical weakness.

When asked what suggestions the delegates had for RRHS students, they replied, "The nutrition problem in Rocky River is not as serious as in lower-income neighborhoods, but there are certain aspects of nutrition which are ignored here.

One is radical dieting--a practice which can seriously harm the health of the person and hurt their school work. Another is the practice of eating a small, unbalanced breakfast. It is important that a nutritional breakfast be eaten, for if ignored, it will lead to headaches and such for the rest of the day."

Students Need Social Security If Planning on Summer Job

With vacation fast approaching, students are thinking about summer jobs or permanent employment if they are graduating seniors.

All employers whether under Social Security or not, require a Social Security number. This is applicable to both full time and part time workers. Therefore, all students should have a social security card available to show to an employer when applying for a job.

To obtain a card or more information, students can contact the local Social Security District Office, Room 810, United Office Building, 2012 West 25 Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44113. Phone 241-7671. Office hours: Monday through Friday from 8:45 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Perry Strikes Out 21; River Blanks Westlake 1-0

The Rocky River varsity baseball team defeated Westlake by a score of 1-0, April 22. The Pirate's record now stands at 6-3.

River at the present time has defeated Parma 3-0, April 10; Padua 5-0, April 13; Lincoln 2-0, April 14; Bay Village 6-5 and 7-0, April 17 and 18; and Westlake 1-0, April 22.

River has been downed only three times by Euclid 3-1, April 8; Parma 8-4, April 15; and Benedictine 7-1, April 11.

Concerning the team's showing so far this season, Coach Don Kelly stated, "I am very pleased with the boys' performance. We've played some of the best teams in the area and we have defeated most of them. We gave Euclid and Benedictine a real battle which is an accomplishment considering the fact that both teams were picked to be state contenders."

Coach Kelly is especially pleased over the team's performances in the areas of pitching and fielding. "Defensively we have made five double plays and the pitching so far has been good," stated Coach Kelly.

Pitcher Lee Perry has not allowed a team to score against him so far this season and thus has an earned run average of .000. Bruce Muslin has only allowed one run of the opposition to cross the plate. Rick Holley and Al Cashin have the respectable earned run averages of .045 and 2.5.

Four River players have already broken into the home run column. They are Art Collins, Bob Cross, Vince Gandolfi, and Gary Martin.

The leading batting averages are registered by Bill Faup .375, Gandolfi .287, Martin .280, Collins .260, and Cross .250.

Tonight, River will host North Olmsted in a conference game.

Tennis Team Downed 3-2, To Face Admiral King Tomorrow

Rocky River's first varsity tennis team was defeated in its first two outings. The netmen lost to John Marshall April 15, and were narrowly downed by Midpark Friday, April 17.

The meet against Marshall saw Bill Walker, George Glazer, and Tom Brooks in singles action, and the doubles teams of Geof Collins-Hugh McGlauglin, and Robin Atak-John Formanek. The match score was 4-1. The doubles team of Atak and Formanek won our only point.

Friday's match with Midpark was slightly more successful. Walker, playing in the first spot, won his match in two sets, 10-8 and 9-7. Glazer, playing second, also won his match in two sets, 6-4 and 8-6. From that point on, the tide was against River, for Ohle lost 1-6 and 4-6, and the two doubles teams of Atak-Van Hals, and Collins-Muny lost 1-6, 1-6, and 4-6, 7-5, 5-7, respectively. Match score was a close 3-2.

Practices are being held after school each night, with emphasis on developing the three primary skills of tennis--the forehand, backhand, and serve.

The next meet will be held April 29 at Lorain Admiral King.

Golf Team Drops First Meet 6-2

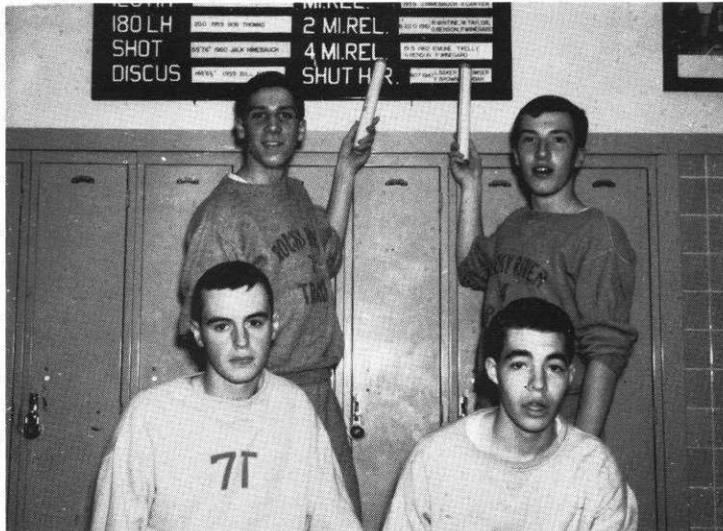

The Rocky River golf team, under the direction of coach Edgar Burford, opened its 1964 season with a nine hole loss to Parma by a 6-2 count.

The team consists of seniors Gar Garland, Craig Kirkpatrick, Steve Myers, John Fraier, sophomore Mark Klaminzer, and freshman Rick Roach.

Due to the poor weather conditions this spring the team did not have a chance to practice on its home course at Spring Valley until late last week.

"Our one and two spots are a bit weak," was the remark from coach Burford, "but our three and four spots are quite strong. The competition is very tough, due to the fact that the one and two men on some teams are very good."

With more than a little curiosity, your fearless member of the fifth estate set out for what had recently been the happy hunting grounds of many a redskin's pennant hopes. Ever since the post-Frank Lane era I have entered the stadium with an attitude of I'm here--now show me something.

For the first time since 1959 the Indians did just that. Though they started out by giving up a first inning run, they came back to show some of the dash which takes baseball out of the "slightly more exciting than cribbage" area which it has been relegated to for the last few years.

The first inning found the Indians lead off man not only getting on but also stealing second. Then, completely unexpectedly, the Indians forgot to retire to their coffins and pulled off one of the most beautiful hit and run plays ever.

The first inning was all that was necessary to show that the Indians are out to please the fan this year. The entrance was recently painted, and the usher no longer mumbled when he took your ticket. But even more evident was the fact that the Indians were out to bring the fans through the turnstiles--even if it meant stealing third with nobody out and the top of the order up.

So take a look at the Indians, for even though they don't have the pitching talent they will need when the drive gets going, they do have the exciting group of young players who may haul the flag home next year, and a bunch of youngsters anxious to give the fans something to talk about.
